VOL. IV. NO. 166.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

W. OVERTON FIRST AGAIN.

The Edgewater Stakes, five and one-half furlongs for two-year-olds, worth $1950 to the winner, was the drawing card at Washington Park, where all conditions for good racing obtained and a large crowd witnessed the contests.

For the principal event of the day it was only natural that J. W. Schorr's W. Overton should be the favorite. On paper it looked as if Kentucky Colonel should give him a tussle, that is, could one, adopting the methods of the handicappers, "throw out" his last race, when on July 1 he ran second to Onomastus. Formero also was thought to have a chance should he recover his form of the early spring. An added starter was Carter H. Harrison Jr (formerly Tuthill), a bay gelding owned by Ed. Corrigan and California bred, being by Watercress out of Lucille Murphy. It was this two year old's first start and 15 to 1 was his price; W. Overton standing at 4 to 5, Formero at 2 1/2 to 1 and Kentucky Colonel at 4 to 1. When the change of name of Corrigan's gelding was announced in the betting ring, the odds gradually lessened, some saying: "Ed would not name a horse better than a good one after the mayor of Chicago's son," while "Jimmy" McCormick's "He will go well if he gets off," was taken as a tip and 7 to 1 was the post price, W. Overton going up to 9 to 10 and Formero advancing to 3 to 1. And Carter H. Harrison, Jr., ran well—for a quarter of a mile—and then stopped to a walk, W. Overton, to a splendid start, took command immediately and with Tommy Burns looking around after the straight was reached, came home the easiest of winners. Formero was last the first quarter, but beat Kentucky Colonel for place. Carter H. Harrison, Jr., was beaten off.

Found, the 8 to 5 favorite for the first race, at once went to the front and won pulled up, after leading all the way. Official, always second, was brought to a hard drive to beat Roger B., who finished third. King Bermuda was close up for five-eighths. Cutter might have been third if not interfered with in the stretch. Kriss Kringle, "a warm one," and quickly backed down from 5 to 3, was beaten 100 yards. Roger B. was strongly backed all three ways.

Afameda, the 7 to 5 favorite, ridden, as was Found by Clawson, likewise never left his backers in doubt about the second race, winning all the way. Canace, upon which filly little Jed Waldo was up, was as easily second, the jockey nicely taking hold of her up the back stretch and sure of his position in the straight, sitting still until the last fifty yards, where he whipped like an old hand, meantime keeping a good hold of the filly's head. Hohenzollern last away to a good start was third. Holland came through the last quarter very fast, and finished well up.

For the fourth time of the day the winner was apparent after the horses had covered the first quarter. This time it was Willie Martin who "shot the chutes," as on Bing Binger he sailed quite away from the others from post to finish. Libertine was always second, Bellicoso running him to a nose at the finish. The favorite, somewhat bumped in going to the club house turn, rounded into the back stretch the last of the bunch many lengths behind Bing Binger. Pinar del Rio seemed to be in some other race, so far behind was she. Joe Ullman was beaten before the half was reached and pulled up "absolutely." Bishop Reed did little better.

The handicap was a "sure enough" horse-race, and the betting showed that the weights were well adjusted, as far as public opinion goes. Eugenia Wickes sprinted to the lead but was passed by Traverser after one-half mile had been run. Here Floronso was second and David Tenny third, close up, while Cherry Leaf, fourth, was two open lengths away, Eugenia Wickes already beaten. In the same order the last quarter was reached. "Traverser will hang on today," went up and Bradley's horse still led to the north end of the betting ring. Traverser was on the rail and between him and Floronso appeared a small opening, through which "Skeets" Martin brought David Tenny with a rush, and Dunne's horse gaining with every stride, was soon one-half length to the good. David Tenny won, Floronso second, Traverser third and the patrons of the track were delighted with the race, no matter what horse had been bet on.

Enchanter for once got away in front, and with Tartarian in company led to the last three-sixteenths where Hurly Burly, always third, passed on and won the race from Algol, who fourth up the backstretch, came next the rails on the turn. Clawson took no chances, but kept Burns from getting past him even had Algol had the speed which was lacking. Enchanter just beat Tartarian for the show money. Mazo got off well back and had no chance. He was played to show by the stable boys. In this race Hurly Burly beat the track record by one-half second, covering the 6 1/4 furlongs in 1:16 flat. Clawson had five mounts (all favorites) and was first three times, second once, and third once.

It was "cut in" day, and twenty-three bookmakers drew in for two days. Marcus Cartwright's two books and Colonel W. E. Applegate's single were the newcomers, while Dave Wright was forced to quit by reason of ill health.

Owner Landsberg has arrived from Fort Erie with Storm King, Governor Sheehan and three other horses.

From Denver ten head of what are designated as "a bad lot" got in.

The presence of George Thurman, so many years with Marcus Cartwright, cheers his host of friends.

"Judge" Dooling of Nashville came up from the south.

Marcus Cartwright of Nashville, the richest bookmaker of West or South, arrived from Fort Erie yesterday on his way to Mackinac, where with his wife he purposes to spend some weeks. With him came fifteen people, bookmakers, clerks and their wives. Among them being young Pesch, son of "old Joe," the celebrated St. Louis poker player and "Budd" Langford of Nashville, son of "old man Langford," who used to be with the eccentric Burton. "Budd" says that his father has retired from the turf for good and is keeping a grocery store in Nashville, where the well remembered Henry C. Brown is keeping a poolroom. Cartwright put in two books at Washington Park today, Pesch and Redon being the block men. He said, "They have got too swift for me and I will lay off and let the boys see what they can do. At St. Louis this year I quit $17,000 loser, and a few thousand more was dropped at Fort Erie. I sometimes feel like quitting the turf permanently." Cartwright, fifteen years ago, was a butcher boy in Tennessee. He always had a penchant for gambling and if a man wished to buy a quarter of beef Marcus would flip whether it was a whole half or nothing. With John F. Donovan, lately deceased at St. Louis, he once at Washington Park tossed up a coin for $1,500 a side and all through his long and honorable turf career has been a "high roller." His home is on one of the richest river farms of his native state.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Nominations close today for a number of stakes to be run at the autumn meeting of the

Coney Island Jockey Club and for the future $25,000 annual champion race and the Lawrence Realization of 1900 and 1901. The latter race is the old Realization with the name "Lawrence" inserted as a permanent compliment to its founder. It will have $5,500 added. The principal stakes arranged for the fall meeting are as follows:

For two-year-olds—The Great Eastern of $5,000; a handicap for two-year-olds; Futurity course. The Flatbush of $3,000; seven furlongs. The Autumn Maiden, with $1,000 added; five furlongs. The Sapphire, with $1,000 added; five and a half furlongs. The Dash, with $1,000 added; five furlongs. The Belles, with $1,000 added; for fillies; Futurity course. The Part-ridge, with $750 added; six furlongs on turf. The Golden Rod, with $750 added; six and a half furlongs on turf.

For two-year-olds and upward—The Flight, with $1,250 added; seven furlongs.

For three-year-olds—The September, with $1,250 added; one mile and three furlongs. The Flying Handicap, with $1,000 added; six furlongs, on main track. The Dolphin, with $1,000 added; one mile and a furlong. The Reapers, with $1,000 added; one mile and three-sixteenths.

For three-year-olds and upward—The Twin City Handicap, of $5,000; one mile and a quarter. The Autumn Cup, of $5,000; two miles. The Turf Handicap, with $750 added; one mile and a quarter on turf. The Russet Handicap, with $750 added; one mile and a half on turf.

The Autumn Handicaps.—The Fall Handicap of $1,500; six furlongs on main track. The Ocean Handicap of $1,500; one mile. The Omnium Handicap of $2,000; one mile and a furlong.

J. E. Madden is something of a marvel as a seller of horses. After having disposed of Hamburg for $40,000, he sold Plaudit to Sydney Paget—who, of course, represents W. C. Whitney—for $25,000. Mr. Whitney is likely to do as well with Plaudit as Marcus Daly did with Hamburg. One or two races will, in the language of the turf, "win him out." Plaudit has only been beaten three times this year and will be a better horse the next time he starts than he was when he ran in the Realization. The fact that gentlemen of Mr. Whitney's stamp are going in so largely for the cream of the product of our breeding farms seems to indicate very clearly that the turf in this country has at last reached the condition of importance which it holds in all European countries and in Australia.—Exchange.

NO RACING AT OAKLEY.

It is officially given out that the customary autumn meeting at Oakley has been abandoned for the present year. The action of the Latonia people in violating an agreement as to dates had some bearing in bringing about the conclusion not to race. Of this phase of the case President Labold is quoted in the Enquirer as saying:

"In substance that agreement was that Oakley should race first in the spring, taking fifteen days for its meeting, with a choice of dates for the fall meeting, fifteen days being as much as we ever cared for. In return Latonia was to begin the season of '99 with a fifteen-day spring meeting, and to have choice of dates for the fall meeting. We conformed to our part of the agreement by beginning the season and taking only the fifteen days as stipulated. The Latonia people have not, however, lived up to their part of the arrangement made at that early meeting. The action of Latonia and Newport in claiming dates for their fall meetings would cut no figure with us if the situation were different. Local conditions are such, however, that we feel we can best subserve our own interests by keeping our gates closed until spring. At the present time there isn't a chance for a race meeting here without syndicate betting, and there is no getting away from the fact that the public is very much dissatisfied with that system of betting. It has been necessary, though, to have that system here this year or to keep the tracks closed. I hope conditions will improve before spring. In any event I, for one, will vote to keep Oakley's gates closed if the only chance for a meeting is to have syndicate betting." President Labold's declaration against syndicate betting was most emphatic. He expressed himself, however, only as an individual. If he voiced the sentiment of the Oakley directory, then a person would almost be forced to the conclusion either that Oakley will not race next season, or that the mutuals will be given another trial at the hill-top track. With only 21 books in line at Washington Park, where once if fewer than 50 books cut in, business would be considered something awful, and only 11 on at St. Louis, with a good game at each, the prospects for the old-time genuine open betting on the Cincinnati tracks next season can hardly be considered bright."

Winner—B. f, 3, by Buckmaster—Pickup.
Off at first break to a good start. Won galloping; the next three were very busy. Found outclassed her field. Her price was a royal one, too. This filly will be hard to beat from now on when lightly weighted. Official ran his race. He wanted to stop at the head of the stretch, but Gray rode him hard, and he just lasted long enough to get the place. Roger B. was under punishment the last three furlongs. He is a useful horse, but not fast enough to beat Found's kind. King Bermuda did well. He is good and can win in cheaper company. Kriss Kringle is a bad horse. He was well played, but sulked every foot of the way.

Scratched—Cash Day, 108; Moncreith, 108; Eight Bells, 92.

Winner—Br. f, 3, by Duke of Montrose—Laura W.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly; third and fourth driving hard. Afamada got away flying and had speed to loan. She was a good filly today and could have run faster had she been pressed out. Canace, at altogether too long a price, ran the race she should. Little Waldo handled her like a veteran. This filly likes a route. Boenzollern, off none too well, took the short route and finished fast. He was almost nipped out of third place by Holland. The latter was last in the stretch and tried to run out. He finished like a whirlwind. He is a good colt, but must have strong handling. Dr. Sharp ran a shabby race. He was well up for a short way and quit to nothing.

71139 THIRD RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Edgewater Stakes. $1500 added; net value to winner $1950. $80 entrance; $300 to second; $100 to third.

Winner—B. c, by Belvidere—Peninah.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. As usual W. Overton toyed with his field. He can handle weight, has a world of speed, can go the route, and is probably the best colt in the west. Formero, slow to begin, made up a lot of ground and ran a good race. There was a lot of bumping and interfering in the race. Formero and Carter H. Harrison, Jr., both suffered. The latter was crowded into the fence and obliged to pull up on the far turn. But for this he might have had a chance. He is a good looking youngster and has worked well. Kentucky Colonel ran his race. He is not good enough to beat either of the two that finished in front of him.

Scratched—King Barleycorn, 121; Jolly Roger, 118; Toluca, 115; Silver Tone, 113.

Winner—B. h, 5, by Duke of Montrose—Nettie.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily. This was a long hard drive for the place. Bing Binger was a good horse today. He galloped all the way. All Martin had to do was to sit still and hold his head up. Libertine got a running start. He had a lot of speed and ran a greatly improved race. Bellicoso was all tangled up at the start. Clawson took the long route and could never get up. His effort to beat Libertine for the place was weak. Joe Ullman could not run fast enough to keep warm. He was eased at the end. The race was a procession all the way and strictly between the first three.

Scratched—Friar John, 100.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Tenny—Mamie B.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won with something left on the end after a hard drive; second and third were under punishment. It was a good race and the best horse won. David Tenny is on edge right now. He had clear sailing and went to the front gamely under punishment in the stretch. Martin took no chances with him and whipped him almost to the wire. Floronso is a greatly improved colt. He raced Traverser to pieces and hung on himself gamely when the pinch came. Traverser had a world of speed. He was running easily down the back stretch and looked very dangerous at the head of the stretch. Cherry Leaf was badly messed about. Evidently a majority of the boys have it in for Conley. At least this race looked as though they did. They shut him off or carried him out on every turn. This accounts for the colt's bad race. Eugenia Wickes was rank the first three furlongs. Kitley tried to place, but could not.

71142 SIXTH RACE—6 1-4 Furlongs. All Ages. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Riley—Helter Skelter.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; the next three were driving to the limit. Hurly Burly was the best and is in grand form just now. Clawson rode the filly nicely. He took the short route and made his run at the right time. The early pace was terrific. Enchanter got a running start and fairly set the track on fire. He had phenomenal speed today. Barrett perhaps made a mistake by going so fast the first part of it. The pace he went would stop most any horse. Algol was waited with early and Burns came with a rush in the stretch. Hurly Burly had to be a good filly to stall this rush off. Tartarian and Enchanter were both staggering at the finish. Mazo would have been just as useful in the stable. This time lowers the track record half a second.

Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Continental, fresh, good, and well handled, liked the heavy going. Long Acre had no chance with the jockey. Was a good horse and likes heavy going. He finished strong. General Maceo quit badly in the last quarter. Ameor was far from fit.

Start straggling. Won driving. Tender was lucky and well handled, finishing on the outside in the best going. She is much improved. Has been sick and has about recovered. Miriam Claire ran a fine, game race. She was probably somewhat short, liked the going and is good. Water Girl liked the track and finished strong. High Born also liked the track and ran well. Ben Viking had no chance with the jockey, but closed a big gap. He looks like a good one. Camotop wants a route. Is a grand looker. Tenny is a fine looker, but ran green. Requita is a good looker and was short.

Start fair. Won driving. Murillo was best. His wind is improving right along. He liked the soft going. He looks fine and should do better. Fleeting Gold was nicely handled, and, at home in the going, ran a fine race. Aurum liked the track and ran well. Charagrace belongs among cheaper ones. So do Commercial Traveler and Crawford. Throw out Caesar's race. He had no chance with the ride. He looks good and will do to watch.
